!! IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT from FCVCC !!

*The 2022 Fall Creek Valley Conservation Club ANNUAL DINNER and ELECTION will be on SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 6th in our Clubhouse ****

DOORS OPEN – 4 p.m. ELECTION – 5 p.m. DINNER to FOLLOW

The Club has asked Smokin' Joe's (a member!) to cater the meat, just like our FNRA Banquet! Members are asked to bring side dishes, salads, breads, desserts. The Club will provide Coffee and Bottled Water. If you prefer a different beverage, please bring it with you!

Having our Annual Dinner in the afternoon should allow more members, including those who can't do a weekday night event, to partake in the food and friendship we have all missed so much the last couple years. This will also give us all a chance to take our time over dinner, catch up with friends, and devote our attention to our Election of Officers for 2023.

PROPOSED SLATE of OFFICERS

For PRESIDENT (Vote for One): Ed Cates Greg England

VICE-PRESIDENT: Steve Bemish TREASURER: Lee Anne Shore SECRETARY: Jan Wright

TRUSTEES (Vote for Two): Brian Capps Blair Chaplin

Indiana Christian Academy's Alison Fulp is headed to Wartburg College on a shooting scholarship

Have you ever heard about a young person shooting their way to a college scholarship? One young lady from Madison County has made this dream a reality. Allison Fulp has been shooting competitively for 10 years. She gets the love of shooting from her father, Damon. He will be the first to admit his daughter surpassed him at busting clay pigeons long ago. Allison began her climb in 4-H Shooting Sports. In 2017, she moved into shooting Scholastic Clay Target Program. In the last three years, she excelled as the top female shooter in trap, skeet and sporting clays — an amazing feat. Four years ago, her father and others started the Lapel High School USA Clay Target League. They allowed students from other high schools to participate. In fact, Allison attends the Indiana Christian Academy. The coaches have been instrumental in getting most of the participants' schools to recognize this trap shooting club as a credited course. Fulp has been the top female shooter in her conference each of the last four years in trap and skeet along with winning conference with her teammates. She has also been the top female shooter in the state each of the last four years. A South Dakota pheasant or a Georgia quail would not have much of a chance if they took flight in front of her. The Lapel team has finished second in the state three of the last four years. Competing within the boundaries of the Hoosier State was not enough for this young lady. Most recently, Fulp won her division at the Junior US Open at the Back Woods Quail Club in Georgetown, South Carolina. Fulp has kept a keen eye on her school work, too, graduating with honors. With this, she has had several offers from colleges. Fulp chose to accept a scholarship from Wartburg College in Waverly, Iowa. This school has a competitive shooting program as well as the double majors she wishes to pursue in its honors program. Damon Fulp, her father, coaches and other team members have volunteered to help work banquets and other functions for the Rocky Mountain Elk Foundation, Friends of the NRA and Indiana Youth Shooting Sports. This young lady has had the honor to be chosen from among 100 of her peers to be an NRA Youth Ambassador where she traveled to trade shows. She spoke about youth shooting experiences. In addition, Fulp wrote articles about gun clubs and youth shooting for several publications. Her coaches over the years include her father, plus Tim and Marcy Stall and Jerry Watson. Others who assisted in coaching the Lapel team include Seth Biddle, Jamie Lausure, Randy England, Blair Chaplin and Dr. Steve Wright. John Beeman was the head coach. Fulp took private lessons from Bobby Brooks of the Farm Sporting Club in New Albany along Jim Dickerson, St. Louis Bunker Trap, Todd Bender and David Radulovich. Her college coach, Chad Wood, will have an excellent student to work with. Rick Bramwell's column appears Thursday in The Herald Bulletin sports section. To contact him, email rickbramwell@aol.com.

If you know a young person who might be interested in learning to shoot trap, skeet or sporting clays, please contact FCVCC, Damon Fulp/FCVCC head of Youth Shooting Sports, Allison Fulp or anyone of the leaders in our Trap Discipline. They would be glad to speak with you!! The kids are our future in shooting!

SHELL RE-LOADING CLASS

Our annual FCVCC metallic cartridge & shot shell re-loading class is scheduled for Thursdays in January 5 thru March 2, 2023 from 6-9 pm in the Clubhouse. We only offer this class once a year, so don't miss it! The focus of the class is to teach you the safe way to reload center fire rifle, pistol cartridges, and shot shells. It is a hands-on class where participants will actually re-load cartridges and shot shells. The classroom learning portion moves quickly. Then the hands-on portion reinforces what we taught in class. You will learn how to use a re-loading manual, all the basic tools for sizing, re-priming, measuring powder, and seating bullets. You will also learn how to adjust your loads to improve your accuracy and how to get the most from a re-loading manual. We must have a MINIMUM of SIX(6) students to hold this class. The fee of $120 covers class manuals, reloading supplies, and your use of the reloading equipment. This is an NRA Certificate class. To register, and for questions, please contact John at jsommerkamp@sbcglobal.net

PLEASE READ AND FOLLOW ALL RANGE RULES POSTED.
THE RULES ARE NOT TO INCONVENIENCE ANYONE – BUT TO ASSURE THE SAFETY OF YOU AND ALL THOSE AROUND YOU !
